Title and Risk

Title to the goods shall remain with the Vendor and shall not pass to the Purchaser until such time as the Vendor has received payment in full of the purchase price and of all bank charges in connection with the sale. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the goods shall be at the Purchaser's risk as of the commencement of carriage from the place where the carrier takes possession thereof.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, under no circumstances shall the Vendor be liable to the Purchaser or to any party whatsoever and the Purchaser hereby renounces any rights or recourses for any defects of any nature in the goods, whether latent or apparent, and the Purchaser undertakes to indemnify the Vendor in respect of any claims or demands that may be made against it by reason of said defects.

Force Majeure and Delay

The parties agree that where the goods are received by way of factory order and the Vendor is unable to make delivery within 120 days of the date of the contract, this agreement is extended unless a party notifies the other party in writing. The Vendor shall not be liable for the non-performance of any of its obligations hereunder occasioned by any Act of God or any cause comprehended in the term "force majeure". The Vendor shall not be liable for any delay in the shipment or delivery of the goods.
